TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

Ms.Nayana Nair registered for the post graduate degree programme of two years in June 2013. On the successful completion of the studies, she was awarded the Master of Library and Information Science (MLISc) on May 11, 2015. She was also awarded the Institute Gold Medal for the Best Student in Library and Information Science

In part fulfillment of the requirement for the degree, Ms.Nayana Nair undertook a research project and submitted a report entitled “Poorva:Nivasanusmrithi Design and development of a web portal and managing access control in manuscripts libraries in India”. This is a significant work where she studied the possibility of development of a web portal for managing access to manuscripts in archives.

She has reasonable grasp of ICT applications in libraries, research methodology and can undertake independent research projects with experience and practice. She is an intelligent, inquisitive and hardworking student.

In the first year, Ms.Nayana Nair was placed for internship at University Library, English and Foreign Languages University (EFLU), Hyderabad. This opportunity gave her good exposure about the functioning of a large university library system. She is a serious and committed team member.

Ms.Nayana Nair has strong orientation towards research, analysis and practice and has the capacity to perform in any sector like academic and research libraries, corporate libraries and information centres, publishers and content providers, NGOs, School, Public libraries etc.

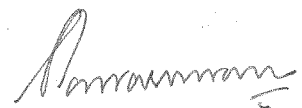

Some of professional skills where she excelled are Digital Libraries (Greenstone and DSpace), Library Automation (Koha, SLIM), Web Technologies, Information Retrieval, Content Management, Classification etc. Her research interests are Classification, Digitisation, Manuscripts Preservation, Cataloguing and Metadata.

Being a motivated student, she took active interest in all teaching learning processes. Her class participation was very good.

We wish her all the very best in her future career.

A statement of grades, obtained by Ms.Nayana Nair, is annexed.
