
Copyright and research

Copyright and research

Publishing

There are many things to consider before choosing your publishing outlet. The copyright website is here to help you understand publishing agreements, licensing options and how to retain rights as an author. However, there are many other resources across the University that can assist you in making informed publishing decisions.

Publishing checklist

Before you publish, make sure you have considered:

- ✓ Authorship management
- ✓ Third-party copyright clearance
- ✓ Finding the right publication outlet
- ✓ Funder requirements (Open Access mandates)
- ✓ Sharing associated research outputs where possible (e.g data, code or software)
- ✓ Indigenous cultural and intellectual property rights
- ✓ Commercial and IP considerations
- ✓ The terms of the publishing agreement
- ✓ Licensing options to encourage reuse