

Indu.T

---

1. One of the expected and natural outcomes of democracy deals with :

- Quality of government
- Quality of political parties
- Diversity of the country
- Framing of the Constitution

2. One of the final and positive outcomes of democracy leads us to think about :

- Challenges to democracy
- Formation of an accountable government
- Giving more Rights to the citizens
- None of the above

3. Democracy is a form of :

- Constitution
- Government
- Federalism
- Pressure group

4. Democracy is considered as better because :

- Promotes equality among citizens
- Enhances the dignity of an individual
- Provides a method to resolve conflicts
- All of the above

5. The Right and means to examine the process of decision making in a democracy is called :

- Right to Freedom
- Right to Speech and Expression
- Transparency
- Accountability

6. Some delay in decision making is bound to take place in a democracy because it is based on the idea of

- Universal Adult Franchise
- Accountable government
- Deliberation and negotiation
- Power sharing

7. Economic development of a nation depends on a country's

- Population
- Economic priorities
- Relations with other countries
- All of the above

8. Democracy is not a guarantee to :

- Political stability
- Social equality
- Economic development
- None of the above

9. Datas have shown that on an average _____ regimes have had slightly better record of economic growth.

- Monarchy
- Democracy
- Dictatorship
- None of the above

10. In the economic development of a nation , there is often inequality of opportunities available to the _____ sections :

- Educated
- Poorer
- Majority
- All of the above

11. More than economic development , it is reasonable to expect democracies to reduce economic :

- Disparities
- Opportunities
- Equalities
- All of the above

12. Growing economic inequalities include a small number of ultra rich enjoying disproportionate wealth and income and their share in the country's total income has been _____.

- Decreasing
- Increasing
- Stable
- Fluctuating

13. One of the greatest plus point of democratic regimes is its

- Ability to handle social differences and conflicts
- To provide Universal Adult Franchise
- To bridge the gap of economic inequalities
- To give Rights to its citizens

14. Complete the following sentence :

Democracy remains a democracy as long as every citizen has a chance of _____ .

- Casting their vote in the elections
- Have a free and fair elections
- Being in a majority at some point of time
- None of the above

15. Democracy transforms people from the status of a subject into that of a _____ .

- Representative
- Citizen
- Voter
- Ruler

17. "Most individuals today believe that their vote makes a difference to the way the government is run." This is a testimony that democracy promotes :

- Economic equality
- Accommodation of diversity
- Dignity and freedom of a citizen
- None of the above

Answers

---

1. One of the expected and natural outcomes of democracy deals with :

- Quality of government
- Quality of political parties
- Diversity of the country
- Framing of the Constitution
- Quality of government

2. One of the final and positive outcomes of democracy leads us to think about :

- Challenges to democracy
- Formation of an accountable government
- Giving more Rights to the citizens
- None of the above
- Challenges to democracy

3. Democracy is a form of :

- Constitution
- Government
- Federalism
- Pressure group
- Government

4. Democracy is considered as better because :

- Promotes equality among citizens
- Enhances the dignity of an individual
- Provides a method to resolve conflicts
- All of the above
- All of the above

5. The Right and means to examine the process of decision making in a democracy is called :

- Right to Freedom
- Right to Speech and Expression
- Transparency
- Accountability
- Transparency

6. Some delay in decision making is bound to take place in a democracy because it is based on the idea of

- Universal Adult Franchise
- Accountable government
- Deliberation and negotiation
- Power sharing
- Deliberation and negotiation

7. Economic development of a nation depends on a country's

- Population
- Economic priorities
- Relations with other countries
- All of the above
- All of the above

8. Democracy is not a guarantee to :

- Political stability
- Social equality
- Economic development
- None of the above
- Economic development

9. Datas have shown that on an average _____ regimes have had slightly better record of economic growth.

- Monarchy
- Democracy
- Dictatorship
- None of the above
- Dictatorship

10. In the economic development of a nation , there is often inequality of opportunities available to the _____ sections :

- Educated
- Poorer
- Majority
- All of the above
- Poorer

11. More than economic development , it is reasonable to expect democracies to reduce economic :

- Disparities
- Opportunities
- Equalities
- All of the above
- Disparities

12. Growing economic inequalities include a small number of ultra rich enjoying disproportionate wealth and income and their share in the country's total income has been _____.

- Decreasing
- Increasing
- Stable
- Fluctuating
- Increasing

13. One of the greatest plus point of democratic regimes is its

- Ability to handle social differences and conflicts
- To provide Universal Adult Franchise
- To bridge the gap of economic inequalities
- To give Rights to its citizens
- Ability to handle social differences and conflicts

14. Complete the following sentence :

Democracy remains a democracy as long as every citizen has a chance of _____ .

- Casting their vote in the elections
- Have a free and fair elections
- Being in a majority at some point of time
- None of the above
- Being in a majority at some point of time

15. Democracy transforms people from the status of a subject into that of a _____ .

- Representative
- Citizen
- Voter
- Ruler
- Citizen

17. "Most individuals today believe that their vote makes a difference to the way the government is run." This is a testimony that democracy promotes :

- Economic equality
- Accommodation of diversity
- Dignity and freedom of a citizen
- None of the above
- Dignity and freedom of a citizen