Respected Sir,

Sub: Counting of my past service rendered as Professional Assistant Grade-I at University of Calicut for the purpose of pensionary benefits.

Ref: (i) Relieving Order No. Nil dated 13.12.2010 vide Ad.F1/15944/2010 dated
13.12.2010 from University of Calicut
(ii) Offer of appointment No. SH/PL.172/2010-11 dated 26.10.2010 from
AIISH

I was working with the University of Calicut as Professional Assistant Grade-I and resigned on 13th December 2010 to join the post of Library and Information Officer at All India Institute of Speech and Hearing, Mysore, an educational Institution under the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Govt. of India. My application to the post was routed through proper channel and I technically resigned from the service after completing all due procedures (copy of my relieving order enclosed as Annexure I & II).

I joined the AIISH service under contributory pension scheme whereas in the University of Calicut I was covered under the old pension scheme. Govt. of India extended the benefit of old pension scheme to the staff moving after 1st January 2004 from State Government / State Government autonomous bodies to the Central Government/Central Government autonomous bodies and vice versa vide OM No. 28/30/2004-P&PW(B) dated 28th October 2009 (copy enclosed as Annexure III). However, the respective government is required to discharge its liability by pro-rata retirement benefits to the respective government/autonomous bodies to which the employee is moving / moved on his selection for which one had applied through proper channel.

It may please be noted that I joined the Government of Kerala service at the Cochin University of Science and Technology in 2001 and moved on to the University of Calicut in 2007 through inter-university transfer. In this regard, I request you to discharge my pro-rata retirement benefits to enable my present organization, the All India Institute of Speech and Hearing, Mysuru to count the past service rendered in the state government for the purpose of pensionary benefits as I applied for my present post through proper channel and resigned technically from the University service after completing all the due formalities and kept lien for two years (copy enclosed as Annexure- IV). I also request you to forward the service records at the University of Calicut to the All India Institute of Speech and Hearing for further reference on the matter.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Shijith Kumar C
